

Home-Learning Challenge	English	Maths	Topic
 Bee Challenge	Write a description of a character from "Beowulf". Try to use extended noun phrases to add detail and bring your character to life.	$23 \times 10 = __$ $230 = 10 \times __$ $2.3 \times 10 = __$ $2300 \div 100 = __$ $23 \div 10 = __$ $2.3 \times 100 = __$ Solve the above calculations and make up some word problems to match them.	Create a painting or drawing of an Anglo-Saxon dwelling using your own choice of materials. Upload a photograph to Google Classroom or bring it in to school.
 Brave-Bee Challenge	Anansi, the spider, is one of the most popular animal tricksters from West African mythology. Draw your own illustration of an animal from one of the Anansi stories.	Multiplying and dividing by 10, 100 and 1,000 is a really important skill that helps us to convert between different units of measure. e.g. length - millimetres (mm), centimetres (cm), metres (m) and kilometres (km) Find items around your home. Measure them in cm, and use your skills to convert this into mm ($\times 10$) and m ($\div 100$)	Design a fact file or poster about the Anglo-Saxon Gods? Which days of the week relate to these gods?
 Super-Bee Challenge	Research and write an explanation text about how something in your home works. You could choose an object you watch or play with, e.g. a TV, a bike or something in the kitchen, like a cooker or a microwave. You can use the internet to help you to research.	Design and create a new board game where players have to use the following maths skill: Multiplying and Dividing by 10 & 100 Challenge your family or friends to play it with you!	We have read and studied Beowulf in class. Can you write your own epic saga about an Anglo-Saxon hero or god? Maximum 500 words.